

Buffy

the vampire slayer™
roleplaying game

Torn-out pages, three-hole punches, worn spots from too much erasing, cramped margin scrawl.

That's all so . . . last season. Get with the program and make your evil-eradicating existence that much easier with the Buffy the Vampire Slayer Character Journal. Beautify your stuff, keep everything nicely organized, and watch Cordelia, the Queen of Mean, go green with jealousy. Record your character stats, skills, maneuvers, Qualities, Drawbacks, description, contacts, friends, memorable quotes and much more in this must-have gaming accessory.

So drop the paper shuffling and gear up the do-gooding!

Xander: So, how'd that work out for ya? Make you feel better?

Buffy: What are you doing here?

Xander: I thought you might need to talk. Then I saw the skirmish happen. I was gonna lend a hand, but I noticed you grew a few extra ones.

PERSONAL QUOTE

Giles: Jonathan? How's he?

Buffy: Pretty crappy. His parents are freaking . . . he got suspended . . . and . . . toting a piece to school not exactly winning him a place with the "in" crowd. But . . . I think he's dealing.

Giles: Well, it's good of you to check on him.

Buffy: Well, it's nice to be able to help someone in a non-slaying capacity. Except he's starting to get that look . . . You know, like he's gonna ask me to prom?

Giles: Well . . . it'd probably be good for his self-esteem . . . if you . . .

Buffy: Ohhh come on . . . what am I, Saint Buffy? He's like three feet tall!

Giles: I dropped out, I went to London . . . I fell in with the worst crowd that would have me. We practiced magicks. Small stuff for pleasure or gain. And Ethan and I discovered something . . . bigger.

Buffy: Eyghon.

Giles: Yes. One of us would, um . . . go into a deep sleep, and the others would, uh, summon him. It was an extraordinary high! God, we were fools.

Willow (to Riley about Buffy): Then talk. Keep eye contact. Funny is good, but don't be glib. And remember, if you hurt her, I will beat you to death with a shovel. A vague disclaimer is nobody's friend. Have fun.
