INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the revised 2nd edition of Superline: Campaign Planner for use with 2nd Edition M&M Superlink. As with the 1st edition, the purpose of this product is to provide you, the Gamemaster, with handy forms to better organize your M&M campaign.

Our suggestion is to print out the forms you need, hole-punch them, and put them in a three-ring binder for easy reference.

Although the forms are largely self-explanatory, we have included a small user guide as an overview.

Campaign Overview (p. 3)

This sheet should only be needed once for any campaign and is designed to assist in the design of the framework of the campaign.

Published Adventure Used (p. 4)

This sheet is used to track any published adventures included in the campaign. If you find yourself in need of adventures, Ronin Arts' Superline series presents new adventures each issue.

Approved Sourcebook (p. 5)

This sheet tracks any additional sourcebooks (and material out of those sourcebooks) other than the basic rules used in the campaign; it is meant as the "official" sourcebook list.

City Information (p. 6-8)

A series of three sheets designed for the GM to reference basic information about the heroes' city and the NPCs that the heroes are most likely to encounter.

Location/Building (p. 9-10)

These sheets serve both as a means of further detailing important locations in the campaign (i.e. to expand on the locations listed in the City Information sheets), and as a location-specific adventure planner.

Organization/Secret Society (p. 11-12)

These sheets can be used to flesh out and track any organization, from the heroes' own to government agencies to villainous cartels.

Villain Datafile (p. 13-15)

These three sheets are designed for major campaign or adventure villains (i.e. those listed in the City Information and Organization/Secret Society sheets).

The initial two sheets need to be filled out only if the villain is to be a recurring element in the campaign; the third sheet can be used as the statistic sheet for both recurring villains and those designed for a single adventure.

Minion/Supporting Cast (p. 16)

A simplified sheet for tracking minions and members of the supporting cast (i.e. reporters, muggers, etc., including those from the City, Location/Building, and Organization/Secret Society Information sheets); this sheet can also be used for major single adventure villains.

NPC/Organization Memorable Encounters (p. 17)

This is a continuation sheet for the Memorable Encounters In The Campaign sections found in the Organization/Secret Society, Villain Datafile, and Minion/Supporting Cast, and Plot Device sheets.

Headquarters/Hideout (p. 18)

This sheet can be used for both the heroes' headquarters as well as villain hideouts (i.e. those reference in the Villain Datafile). It can also be used for any other buildings that can make use of the Headquarters features (i.e. private mansions with security systems, government offices, etc.).

Powers And The Law (p. 19)

This sheet focuses attention on any specific laws regarding the use of superpowers in the campaign.

Powers And Society (p. 20)

This sheet focuses attention on how the "normal" population feels about super-powered beings in the world.

Custom Powers (p. 21)

Use this sheet to track any powers included in the campaign beyond those found in the sourcebooks, to track changes to powers from the sourcebooks, or simply as a handy reference guide if your campaign only allows a limited selection of powers.

Archetypes In The Campaign (p. 22)

Keep track of archetypes beyond those found in the sourcebooks, use it as a handy reference for sourcebook archetypes allowed in your campaign, or even as a character sheet for player heroes based on archetypes.

Custom Drawback (p. 23)

This sheet can be used to keep track of hero and NPC drawbacks, both unique and from the sourcebooks.

Drawback Tracker (p. 24)

This sheet is meant as an aid for the GM to keep track of the heroes' individual drawbacks from adventure to adventure.

Complications Tracker (p. 25)

Complications mean hero points. This sheet is designed to allow the GM to track individual heroes' complications on an adventure-to-adventure basis to ensure that all the heroes have an opportunity to face complications.

Plot Device (p.26)

This sheet is designed for creating and tracking any über-powerful gadgets and agents of the campaign.

Global Hot Spots (p.27)

This sheet is designed to serve as a guide for possible adventure locations.

Adventure Outline (p.28)

Use this sheet to create the framework of an entire scene-based (event-based) adventure.

Scene (p.29)

This sheet is used to flesh out the scenes listed in the Adventure Outline.

Rumor/Adventure Lead (p.30)

Rumors are a great way to introduce upcoming adventures to heroes; this sheet tracks them.

Future Adventure Idea (p. 31)

When inspiration for an adventure strikes, write down the pertinent information here and then create the adventure using the Adventure Outline and Scene sheets.

Session History (p. 32)

Consider this sheet the diary of the campaign; complete it after every session to keep a chronological history for future reference, to return to for adventure ideas, and to reminisce.

Unresolved Issue/Leads (p. 33)

When things are left hanging by the heroes during a session, this sheet allows the GM to track them for inclusion in future adventures.

Adventure/Gamemaster Review (p. 34)

This sheet should be handed out and collected by the Gamemaster at the end of each game session/adventure; a few minutes spent giving honest feedback makes the game more enjoyable for everybody.

Notes (p. 35)

If it can't be put, or won't fit, on an existing form, keep track of it here.
